R. N. VASUDEVA
Salt Commissioner

Licence for the Manufacture of Salt under Central Excise Rules, 1944

I, Salt Commissioner do hereby licence Shri of in the district of to manufacture and store salt in the places and on the conditions specified below:—

Place of Manufacture
Name of Factory	Particulars of the salt work to which this licence applied	Place of storage
Survey Nos.	Area Boundaries

Note—In this Licence the word "Licence" shall be deemed to include the licensee, his heirs, executors and administrators.

The conditions of this licence are:

(i) Period—This licence is granted subject to the provisions of the Central Excise and Salt Act, 1944, as amended from time to time and any rules made thereunder and will be valid for a period of 25 years (conforming, however, with the period of lease of the land) from the date of issue of the licence in the first instance but renewable for another period of 25 years or for such period and on such terms and conditions as the Government of India may prescribe from time to time.

(ii) The powers conferred on the Salt Commissioner under the conditions that follow may also be exercised by any officer empowered by him from time to time in this behalf (hereinafter called the "Authorised Officer").

(iii) The licensee shall obey all the lawful orders issued by (Officer in charge of the factory) relating to the manufacture, storage and removal of salt and to the general discipline of the factory subject to appeal to the higher authorities.

(iv) The licensee shall not use the land within the aforesaid limits for any purpose unconnected with the manufacture and storage of salt.

(v) Plan—The plan of each Salt Works or the re-alignment of existing factories should be previously approved by the Officer before the construction is started and no alteration thereafter should be made without the sanction of the Licensing Officer. The Licensees shall complete all preliminary arrangements in time to commence the manufacture of salt within two years from the date of issue of this licence, failing which it will stand as cancelled. The licensee shall pay expenses of any survey that may be ordered of the land within the aforesaid limits and of preparing maps thereof.

The licensee(s) shall to the satisfaction of the authorised officer carry out at their own cost all the necessary works, changes and repairs connected with the Salt Works.

(vi) The Licensee shall at the commencement of each manufacturing season intimate in writing to the (officer in charge of the Factory) the number and extent of pans he intends to work in that season.

(vii) The Licensee shall be responsible for all damages other than fair wear and tear done to the machines, weights or other Government property at the time of storage and removal of salt.

(viii) Quality—The licensee shall manufacture salt of a quality not inferior to the/standards laid down by the Indian Standards Institution/and or/as declared by the Government by a notification in Gazette of India from time to time, Should on Chemical analysis the quality of salt be considered below the standard for the purpose required the factory officer may refuse to clear the salt and if it is not disposed of for industrial use etc. within a year of its production cause all such salt to be destroyed at the expense of the licensee.

(ix)(a) Maintenance of Common Services—The Licensee shall engage himself and/or in conjunction with the other licensees of the Salt Factory to construct and maintain his and/or common brine supply channels, reservoirs, drying grounds, storage platforms and common roadway, where they exist, in good order, and in case of their failure or on the request of the licensees, Government may execute them and realise the proportionate cost from the licensees.

(b) In case of any dispute arising as to the liability of the licensee under sub-clause (a) above, the matter shall be referred for the orders of the Assistant Salt Commissioner of the division and his decision shall be final.

(x) Right of way—The Licensees shall be bound to allow all neighbouring licensees and their labourers such reasonable right of way over the ridges of their pans (words italicised omitted in the case of Licensees in Bombay Region) as may be necessary for them to carry the salt from their pans to the drying grounds storage platforms or otherwise.

(xi) Reserve Stock—The licensee should maintain a percentage of production, as minimum reserve, of his factory as prescribed by Government from time to time.

In case it is considered essential by the Government and if so required by the authorised officer the licensee(s) shall sell the salt produced to the person or persons so authorised in writing to make the purchase.

(xii) Transfer of licence—The Licensee should not sublet, sell, mortgage or otherwise transfer the licence without previous permission of the lessor. Sub-letting of the licence will be allowed only in exceptional circumstances.

(xiii) Levy of cess and other charges—No salt shall be removed except under a permit and on payment of cess and other charges mentioned in rule 131 of the Central Excise Rules 1944.

(xiv) Recovery of by-products—The licensee shall in the event of his holdings extending over 200 acres at any time, also make arrangements for recovery of one or more by-products of salt during the course of the manufacture and also pay a royalty on the same at the rate fixed by the Government.

(xv) Statistical Returns—The licensee should supply such accurate information as any when required by the Government about:

- (a) the acreage under cultivation in each season with details as to the areas of reservoirs, condensers and crystallisers,
- (b) Production of salt,
- (c) Sales,
- (d) cost of manufacture and selling prices, and
- (e) maintain such records and returns as will be prescribed by the Salt Commissioner from time to time.

(xvi) Ground rent—The licensee shall pay ground rent at such rate as may from time to time be fixed under the orders of Government.

(xvii) Due diligence—The licensee shall exercise due diligence in manufacturing and shall work the area included in his licence to its full capacity in every year in which the Salt Commissioner or his nominee directs.

(xviii) The licensee shall agree that whenever a notice has to be served upon the general body of the licensees of the factory, the exhibition thereof for not less than seventy two consecutive hours on a prominent part of the factory office shall be a full and sufficient service of the same on the licensees.

(xix) No compensation clause—The Licensee shall not claim from Government any compensation in the event of Government embarking upon a policy of nationalisation or on the termination of the licence or on the closure of the factory or its earlier termination for non fulfilment of rules or for any loss or damage to stored or unstored salt belonging to him and laying at the salt factory. Unless it be proved that such loss or damage was caused by the wilful act or neglect of an officer of the Salt Department employed at the factory.

(xx) Amounts due to be recoverable as arrears of land revenue—All sums recoverable from the licensee or in any way due to Government from him may be deducted by the Salt Commissioner or his nominee from any money owing to the licensee which may be in the hands of the Salt Commissioner or under his disposal or control or may be recovered by the Salt Commissioner by attachment and sale of licensee's salt remaining within the limits of the factory. If not so recovered, such sums may be recovered by Collectors of Districts as arrears of land revenue on application from the Salt Commissioner or his nominee. Such salt shall not be removed from the factory so long the said sums are not realised.

(xxi) (a) Penalty—Violation of any of the conditions of the licence or failure to manufacture salt for consecutive seasons without valid reasons shall render to licencee liable to suspension or shall make the licensee liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 500 in lieu thereof. Repeated violation of the condition of the licence or in the event of the licensee having been convicted criminal offence under the Indian Penal Code, will render the licence liable to cancellation.

(b) The Salt Commissioner's decision shall be final in case of any dispute arising between the parties to this licence as to the interpretation of the terms of this licence or the obligations thereunder and such decision shall be final and binding on the licensee.

Given under my hand and seal at day of in the year.

Salt Commissioner
